Introduction to the Biltmore Estate

The Biltmore Estate is the largest privately-owned home in the United States, boasting 8,000 acres of land, a 178,926-square-foot house, and a rich history woven into the fabric of American culture. Built between 1889 and 1895 by George Washington Vanderbilt II, the estate was designed to serve as a private retreat and showcase the Vanderbilt family's wealth and taste.

Initially conceived as a summer estate, Biltmore's grandeur and innovative architecture quickly garnered attention, making it a landmark in American history. Inspired by French châteaux and European castles, Vanderbilt aimed to create a luxurious and comfortable retreat that would also serve as a hub for art, horticulture, and entertainment.

Design and Construction
