The Red Hand Stories emerged as a multimedia project designed to explore themes of guilt, morality, and human psychology through an interactive narrative format. Rooted in a mythic structure, the stories revolve around a mysterious figure—the Red Hand—whose presence signifies a crossroads of moral choices and consequences. The project was initially conceived as a series of web-based narratives, but it quickly expanded into a multifaceted experience incorporating visuals, audio, and user interaction.

At its core, the Red Hand is both a literal symbol within the stories and a metaphorical device representing accountability and the human tendency to conceal or confront guilt.
