Despite their apparent affluence, Hester constantly feels a sense of emptiness and insecurity, which fuels her obsession with making money.

Paul's obsession with winning races grows as he is haunted by the whispering voice in the house: "There must be more money." His desire to help his family leads him to ride his rocking horse vigorously, believing that his efforts will reveal the winner of upcoming races. As he rides tirelessly, he becomes increasingly convinced that his riding can influence the outcome of races, and he begins to bet on horses based on his predictions.
