Historical Background of Thornhill

Origins and Early Settlement

Thornhill's origins date back to the early 19th century, with the area originally inhabited by Indigenous peoples, notably the Mississaugas of the Credit River. European settlement began in the 1800s, primarily driven by agriculture and small-scale trade. Named after the Thornhill family, early settlers established farms, mills, and small businesses that laid the groundwork for the community's growth.

The community's growth in the 19th and early 20th centuries was facilitated by its strategic location along key transportation routes, including the Toronto and Nipissing Railway, which arrived in the early 1900s. This connectivity spurred development, making Thornhill a hub for commerce and residence for those working in Toronto and surrounding areas.
