Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Q1. What is the difference between a will and intestate succession in ghar ka vadh?

Answer: A will is a legal document where the property owner specifies how their assets should be distributed after death. Intestate succession occurs when no will exists, and the estate is distributed according to applicable laws.

Q2. Can daughters claim equal rights in ancestral property?

Answer: Yes, after amendments in the Hindu Succession Act (2005), daughters have equal rights as sons in ancestral property.

Q3. Is it necessary to register the transfer of inherited property?

Answer: While inheritance laws do not mandate registration, registering the property provides legal proof of ownership and helps prevent disputes.

Q4. How long does the process of ghar ka vadh take?

Answer: The duration varies depending on the complexity of the case, documentation, and court procedures, ranging from a few months to several years.

Q5. Can a property be inherited by a non-family member?

Answer: Typically, inheritance laws restrict transfer to legal heirs. Non-family members can only acquire property through sale or gift, not inheritance, unless specified in a will.
