2. Keep the List Manageable and Organized

Prepare the list in advance, ideally categorized and printed for easy reference. Use index cards or slips of paper with each prompt written clearly. Organize prompts by difficulty or theme to facilitate game flow.

3. Set Clear Rules and Time Limits

Decide on a reasonable time per round (e.g., 60 seconds) and communicate rules clearly to all guests. This helps maintain momentum and ensures everyone has fun without the game dragging on.

4. Incorporate Variations and Challenges

To keep the game lively, introduce variations such as team play, silent acting, or incorporating props. For example, players can act out a phrase without speaking, or teams can earn bonus points for particularly creative interpretations.

Have extra prompts on standby in case the list runs out or to accommodate different group sizes.
