Plot Summary

The story begins with Hercule Poirot receiving an invitation to a dinner and bridge party hosted by a wealthy and eccentric collector of art and antiques, Mr. Philo Vance (not to be confused with the American detective of the same name). The gathering includes eight guests, each with a mysterious past or motive. Among them are:

- Alice Cunningham
- Countess Vera Rossakoff (a recurring character in Christie's works)
- Superintendent Battle (a recurring detective character)
- Other notable figures with hidden agendas

As the evening progresses, the atmosphere thickens with tension. During the game, one of the guests, Lady Dittisham, is found dead, having been shot. The initial assumption points to a straightforward murder, but Poirot quickly suspects that the crime is more complex and intertwined with the guests' secrets.

The core of the novel revolves around the concept of "who did it?" and "how was it done?"
