John Galliano's journey into the world of fashion began in London during the late 1970s and early 1980s. Enrolled at Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design, Galliano quickly distinguished himself with his flair for storytelling through clothing. His early collections were characterized by their theatricality, rich historical references, and a penchant for the dramatic traits that would become hallmarks of his later work.

During this period, Galliano drew inspiration from a diverse palette of sources, including:

- Victorian and Edwardian eras
- French and European aristocratic fashion

- Theatrical costumes and stagecraft
- Art movements such as Art Deco and Surrealism

These influences fused into a unique aesthetic that championed storytelling, theatricality, and a sense of fantasy. His graduation collection, "Les Incroyables," showcased his skill for combining historical grandeur with modern edge, signaling his future as a designer of spectacular fashion.

- Extravagant embellishments, including feathers, sequins, and embroidery
- Dramatic silhouettes with exaggerated proportions
