Paris has long been heralded as the cultural capital of the world, hosting a rich tapestry of events that draw millions of visitors annually. The 2020 calendar was anticipated to be a landmark year, with a mix of international festivals, fashion showcases, art exhibitions, sports competitions, and governmental gatherings. However, the emergence of COVID-19 in early 2020 drastically altered these plans.

This cautious approach aimed to balance economic and cultural vitality with public health concerns.
