Included Texts and Authors

Band 128 features three major historical works, each representing different periods, regions, and historiographical approaches:

The Scriptores Historiae segment emerged as a specialized subset within the Loeb series, concentrating on historical writings ranging from ancient chronicles and annals to biographical and historiographical works. The primary goal was to preserve these texts' integrity while rendering them accessible to modern readers who might lack proficiency in original languages but desire a direct engagement with primary sources.

Development Through the 20th and 21st Centuries

Over the decades, the SHL has expanded considerably, reflecting the evolving scope of classical historiography. Early volumes focused on foundational texts from Herodotus, Thucydides, and Xenophon, but subsequent editions incorporated a broader array of sources, including Byzantine chronicles, late antique histories, and even some lesser-known authors.

Advancements in scholarship, improved manuscript discoveries, and technological developments have all influenced the series. In recent years, digital editions and online access have complemented the print collections, ensuring the series remains relevant and accessible in the digital age.
