Historical Background

Lester Horton (1906-1953) was an influential American dancer, choreographer, and teacher. He developed his dance technique in the early to mid-20th century, drawing inspiration from various dance styles, including ballet, African dance, and modern dance. Horton's experiences with different cultures and movement vocabularies contributed to his innovative approach, which prioritized functional movement and anatomical awareness.

Philosophy Behind the Technique

Horton believed that dance should be accessible to everyone, regardless of body type or background.
